

POTTER WOULD SHOULD SHEPARD TO THE DOOR

Annoyed by Lawyer's Attack on Him for "Sybaritic Elegance."

WILL NOT DISCUSS IT.

Says He Can Run His Diocese
Without the Aid of Anybody.

Bishop Potter's comment to an Evening World reporter to-day on the attack made upon him by E. M. Shepard was that if Mr. Shepard were to call upon him he would have his "second man" show the Brooklyn lawyer the door.

Mr. Shepard had referred to the "second man" as evidence of the "sybaritic elegance" in which the Bishop lives. He criticized the head of the New York diocese for maintaining a large staff of servants and living in luxury inconsistent with ecclesiastical moderation.

When seen at his mansion, Riverside Drive and West Eighty-ninth street, the prelate was visibly annoyed, while he said that Mr. Shepard's attack had no effect on him.

"I will not dignify the matter by discussing it," said the Bishop, with a wave of his hand.

"Do you not think that Mr. Shepard's statements call for a reply of some kind?" asked the reporter.

"The Bishop, who, despite his statement that Mr. Shepard's attack has not disturbed his peace of mind, did not seem to be in a very amiable mood, turned to the "second man" mentioned in the attorney's attack as being one of a retinue of servants."

"I would ask this man to show Mr. Shepard the door should he call here," said the Bishop.

"Mr. Shepard has said, by implication, that you are careless and indifferent to practices permitted and doctrines preached under your ministry."

"I have nothing to say to Mr. Shepard's remarks."

"He charges that your rules for the conduct of the diocese are 'ignoble.'"

"I can conduct the affairs of my diocese without the assistance of Mr. Shepard or the newspapers," sharply replied the head of the Episcopal Church in New York City.

"I am too busy now to discuss the matter," he replied. "I have no time to make a reply."

Mr. Shepard's Statement.

In his statement criticizing the Bishop, Mr. Shepard said:

"I have for many years been a member of the diocese of New York. I have seen the Bishop in the attack which he has been making upon me for many years."

"This false and indecent imputation comes from a bishop who has, for many years, been conspicuously indifferent to preaching in his own diocese more than to the imputation of sin."

"I believe I will receive, moral contempt from every right-thinking man who knows of it."

"Dr. Crapsey has not, ever since he entered the ministry, lived with the rich, he is not served to-day by a butler and a coachman, he is not one of the chief figures at the dinner tables of the private houses of the city."

"He is indignantly rejected by the people of New York. He is the only one of the American people who is not a member of the church."
